Winona furnace went into blast last Monday.

Special attention is called to the new advertisement of F. J. Harmison & Co.

A two-year old son of Henry Smith, of Haydensville, was severely bitten last week by a pet coon.

Mr. John Hanafy, of Loganport, Ind., is visiting friends and relations in Hocking County.

Clarence Brown, eight year old son of Mrs. Mary Brown, cut his leg badly with a penknife. Dr. Blosser dressed the wound.

The Street Commissioner, Mr. John Zanade, is doing excellent work on our streets, making them shine like a silver dollar.

Geo. W. Lloyd, one of the leading merchants of Sand Run, was in town on Tuesday and gave the Sentinel a pleasant call.

Robert Hamblin, former Steward of the Athens Asylum, has accepted the Presidency of the First Bank of Pomeroy, O. We join in congratulations to one of Hocking county's most honored sons.

We have quite a number of Agricultural Reports from Washington City on hand, and will distribute them among our subscribers as they come in and pay up their subscription. First comes, first served.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall, of Iowa, are visiting friends in Logan, guests of J. M. Floyd. Mr. Hall has taken Typhoid fever since his arrival at Mr. Floyd's and his recovery is doubtful.

Robert Stalter and Cal Essex of New Straitsville, have leased the Monday Creek coal mines from the Ohio and Western Coal and Iron Co., and have commenced shipping coal.

Rev. George Geiger stopped in town on Saturday while on his way to his appointment at Wells. Rev. Geiger is among our oldest subscribers and we are all very pleased to greet him in our sanctuary.

On Sunday Sept. 15, the C. H. V. & T. R. Co. will sell round trip tickets to Columbus, at one fare for round trip. Special train will leave Columbus at 6 p. m., which will give people an opportunity to see the game of Base Ball between Columbus & Cincinnati clubs.

The old veterans, when they attend the Reunion next week, will find at the Saloon of J. N. Slatzer, opposite the Postoffice, the best of Milwaukee and Columbus Beer, fresh and cool, also choice Wines and Liquors. Mr. Slatzer conducts an orderly place and is accommodating to his patrons. Drop in and see him while here.

The Indian Medicine Co. that has been with us for the past two weeks, has gone to Nelsonville. We deem it but just to say of the Co., that while here they conducted themselves as gentlemen, dealt fairly with our people, gave many very pleasant evening entertainments, and took with them the best wishes of our people. We learn that they will be with us again during our County Fair, and they will prove a drawing card.

The Reunion of the 75th and 90th Reg. O. V. I., to be held here on the 19th and 20th, promises to be a grand success. Hundreds of ex soldiers from different parts of the State will be present to renew their old army acquaintance and talk over the conflicts they went through more than a quarter of a century ago. Nothing is being left undone by our local committees to perfect arrangements for a good time, and if the weather is favorable we look for an enjoyable occasion when the old veterans meet here on next Thursday and Friday.

Citizens who have vehicles of their own, are invited to join the procession on Friday afternoon.

O. C. Waite, pres. Falkenbalk, vice pres., and other officials of the C. H. V. & T. R. Co., passed down the Hocking Valley on a business trip. The results of the new management are already bringing forth good fruit. An additional man has been added to each section and we are informed that additional passenger trains will be put on the road for the benefit of the traveling community and to expedite mail matters. We notice a more liberal policy is being used by the new management that will result in additional prosperity to the road.

Coming Events.

Grand re union of the 75th and 90th O. V. I., on next Thursday and Friday.

Hocking County Fair, October 2nd, 3rd, 4th and 5th.

Opening of the Common Pleas Court, October 28th.

State elections, November 5th.

List of advertised letters in the Logan, Ohio, Postoffice, September 12th, 1889:

Miss Kate Butin, Mr. Harry Bell, Mr. A. C. Barclay, Miss Sarah Coble, Sarah Ann Crook, J. W. Crook, G. B. Dusenberry, Jim D., Miss Louis Dean, E. C. Denver, Mr. J. Groff, Mrs. Jane Hufford, Mr. John Krumm, W. W. Merrill, Mr. Joseph Miller, Mr. Jacob C. Miller, Mr. Riddle, Elizabeth Reese, Mrs. Sarah Rose, Mr. George Wright, Miss Francis Waland, Miss Mary Waland.

Mr. Joe Bright, who is one of the pleasantest gentlemen of our county, is with the Sentinel, engaged in the work of renewing an acquaintance with a number of our friends who seem to have forgotten us. We hope his "gentle reminders" will move the tender hearts of our delinquents, and induce them to come in and see—see Joe.

About $5,000 of money is coming to the Sentinel in sums from $1.00 to $10.00. With bills to meet for paper, workmen to pay, rents, axes, insurance and the various incidents of keeping a business going, it only looks reasonable that we should ask to be helped out of the clutches of some other collector. Call in and see Joe.

Brigade Encampment.

Arrangements are now being made for an encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, composed of the counties of Franklin, Fairfield, Hocking and Perry, at Lancaster, October 24, 1889. This will be the first meeting in this district under the new organization in which the Posts of each county compose a Battalion and the four Battalions constitute a Brigade. It is proposed to make this a grand encampment and reunion to be addressed by distinguished ex soldiers. One of the proposed features is a sham battle to be fought on Mt. Pleasant, in imitation of the battle on Lookout Mountain. Grand Army men of this county are preparing to attend in full force.

Notice to Owners of Hog Pens.

At a meeting of the Board of Health held Sept. 7th, 1889, the following rules in regard to hogs and hog pens were adopted:

1st. That all hogs be kept on plank floors.

2nd. That the pen shall be cleaned once a day.

3rd. That the cleanings shall be covered with lime, earth or ashes to prevent smell, and lime used about the pen so as to prevent bad odors from the same.

Section 18 of the rules of the Board of Health also says:

Sec. 18. No butcher's offal, or garbage, nor any dead animal, nor any putrid or stinking animal or vegetable matter, shall be allowed to collect on the premises of any person, or be thrown or allowed to run into any street, alley, lane or place, or into any standing water or excavation within the village.

Sec. 9. Whoever violates any order of the Board of Health made in pursuance of the powers granted in this ordinance, shall upon conviction thereof be fined in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars, or imprisoned not less than ninety days; but no person shall be imprisoned for the first offense.

Col. Shakespeare on the Roam.

Once in our brilliant boyhood we employed Shakespeare in our service. He is a journalistic tramp. He is now in the north-west and the boom companion of Wes McClintock, of the Defiance Republican. We note from last week's paper Shakespeare as follows:

"Is it a dagger I see before me?" No it is a watermelon that Shakespeare has for sale, cheap for cash. Now is the winter of our discontent made glorious, by the new goods at Shakespeare's. A horse, my kingdom for a horse. Go to Shakespeare's, buy a horse and get a horse and buggy for four dollars a day. And so we might go on showing how the old Shakespeare is working his scheme on Wes McClintock.

OBITUARY.

Leslie Rupert O'Hare, only son of Mr. and Mrs. David O'Hare, was born in Perry Co., O., near Winona, February 9th, 1881. Physically, he was delicate from his infancy, and yet death came very suddenly after but a few hours of illness on the morning of Sept. 3rd, 1889. For his strength, Leslie was an active boy, and for his gentle demeanor a favorite among his playmates. In his mind centered the hopes of fond parents and from his presence the home took joy and comfort. He enjoyed his Sabbath School and took great interest in the public school. "We all do fade as a leaf," but every leaf has had its purpose. The short life of Leslie was long enough for the perfecting of a purpose. By that life indisputable ties were made. His bodily presence has gone at the call of God, but he still liveth. It is not as if father and mother had never rejoiced in the profession of their sorrow, memory, faithfully yields his words and deeds for contemplation, while love projects its vision into the unseen spiritual world. The dead are always ours. We do not outlive memory of them. Each passing day has its reminder. Like the silent harp, "The music is but sleeping in each silent string; And which only for religious ecstasies influences of harmony again bring." "Oh, when the music of some voice is heard, it is the Master's bidding to have ceased to live. Think not, because unheard, such symphonies have perished. Even here the echoes still flow on from soul to soul."

A new roof and other repairs are being made on the Catholic Church.

Winfield Scott, of Athens, who was hurt on the railroad a few days ago, died yesterday.

Mr. Fisher, miner at Haydensville, was killed yesterday, by falling slate.

About one thousand men are at work on the railroad between Tilton and Bloomingville.

The Board of Health and the Council are working energetically to secure the much needed cleaning up of our town.

Judge Fricaner, who has been in Mississippi trying a case in which Gus Floyd's family is interested, sends the gratifying news that he won the suit, awarded $14,000 and title to 890 acres of land.

Mr. Shotwell has our thanks for a fine watermelon. We know it was good or it wouldn't have been stolen from our table. It is our opinion that the men on the second floor of the James Block are more to be watched than the small boy.

Clerk Lappen is the champion potato raiser. His Donagals are of a size to make a meal. The size of the potatoes of course is not Bro. Lappen's industry, but his better half was doing the work.

We call the attention to Chas. Bowliby, manager of the Republican party of Hocking, to the fact that Mr. John Jones, one of Grover Cleveland's appointees, still dispenses the two cent stamps at Havdensville.

LOCAL PERSONALS.

A. J. Burgess, of Gore, was in town on Saturday.

Mrs. Frank Rochester is visiting in McArthur.

Dr. Blosser and wife, were in Junction City last Sunday.

Reuben Spurrier, of Columbus, is visiting friends in Logan.

CHEAP EXCURSION.

To Baltimore, Md., via B. & O. R. R.

On Saturday, September 7, the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad will sell excursion tickets to Baltimore, Md., at one fare for the round trip, good returning to and including September 21.

The Maryland Exposition and Fair will be held September 9 to 14. Races every day, on the famous Pimlico Track; entries from the best stables in the country. The Baltimore Oriole, with its gorgeous pageantry, grand ball, etc., revived, on Thursday, the 12th. Bombardment of Fort McHenry, by United States Men-of-War and the Maryland Oyster Navy, on Friday the 13th.

The Indian Show has left but Chris. Holl is still at the East End Grocery with Fresh Groceries, Provisions, Chickens, Produce, Melons, Celery and Oysters.

The Massachusetts Prohibition platform contains this condemnation of the Republican party: "That under existing conditions more economy is called for in public expenditure, a reduction in public revenues and a revision of tariff taxes for the enlargement of our industries and for placing them upon a more permanent, natural and equal basis." Bay State Prohibitionists recognize that the tariff is a tax.

Fanatical Republicans have sometimes foolishly said that a man cannot be a Christian and a Democrat. In the New York Prohibition convention last week Dr. W. H. Boole, president of the national Prohibition park on Staten Island vehemently declared that a man who voted the Republican ticket was not a Christian.

The Republican organs ought to agree among themselves whether Hon. James E. Campbell is a protectionist or a free trader. Some of them assert that he is a protectionist, others insist that he is a free trader. By the way, if Foraker has any opinions on the subject of the tariff what are they?

A Sound Legal Opinion.

E. Brainbridge Munday, Esq., county attorney, Clay Co., Tex., says: Have used Electric Bitters with most happy results. My brother also was very low with Malarial Fever and Jaundice, but was cured by timely use of this medicine. Am satisfied Electric Bitters saved his life.

This great remedy will ward off as well as cure all Malarial Diseases, and for all Liver, Kidney and Stomach disorders it stands unequalled. Price 50 cts. and $1 a bottle at F. Harrington.

Maryland's Exposition.

Elaborate preparations are being made for the Great Exposition to open at Baltimore, Monday, September 9th and continue until Saturday, September 14th. A monster parade, Industrial and Civic, with 300 floats and 50,000 men in line will be one of the features of the first day. A sham battle, grand concert and massed band concert in which 50 bands will take part, dedication of the Post Office by the President and Cabinet and Maryland Grand Ball are on the program for Thursday the 12th. The bombardment of Fort McHenry is arranged for Friday the 13th. Eight United States Men-of-War, the Maryland Oyster Navy and 500 men will be in the engagement and something real static can be looked for. Some of the best stables in the country are entered for the races which take place each day on the Pimlico track.

The railroads are making low rates and the B. & O. with its usual liberality announces that excursion tickets will be sold to Baltimore from all stations on its lines east of the Ohio River, for all trains September 7th to 14th inclusive, at one fare for the round trip, valid for return passage until September 21st, inclusive.

"There was a frog who lived in a spring. He caught such a cold he could not sing. Poor, unfortunate Batschman! In what a sad plight he must have been. And yet his misfortune was one that often befalls singers. Many a once tuneful voice among those who belong to the 'genus homo' is utterly spoiled by 'cold in the head,' or on the lungs, or both combined. For the above mentioned 'cure' we are not aware that any remedy was ever devised, but we realize to know that all human singers may keep their heads clear and throats in tune by the timely use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy and Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, both of which are sold by druggists.

Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures the worst case of Catarrh of the Throat, no matter of how long standing, while for all laryngitis, bronchitis, throat and lung affections, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is positively unequalled. It cures the worst lingering coughs and builds up the flesh and strength of those who have been reduced by wasting diseases. It is guaranteed to benefit or cure in all diseases for which it is recommended. If taken in time and given a fair trial, or money paid for it refunded.
